Scope of This Manual

The purpose of this manual is to familiarize you with the controls and access you have to your license information, and continuing product downloads whenever you need them. The online tools available to you connect you directly with our server to provide you with everything you need to:

- Log in to your account
- Change your account data, such as your Email address, phone number, address, etc.
- Change your account/license password
- See a complete list of all the software for which you have a license.
- Determine the status of your license, such as number of activations left.
- Link to the most current installer for your software
- Track your payment/order history.

We have provided these controls for your convenience so that you do not have to contact us for file links, license information, etc.

Your Account Information

It is very important that you keep track of your basic login information. We will be glad to furnish you with this information should you lose it, however, it saves everyone a lot of time if you keep track on the following:

- Your customer number. Your Email address*, and other data listed below can also be used to login instead of your customer number.
- Your password.

That is really all you ever need to remember. The online data will provide you with the rest of the data you need, such as license ID numbers.

* Keep in mind that what we have in our database is the Email address you provided us when you last logged in or purchased software. So if you have changed your Email address, make sure to use your previous address to login. You can then update the system to your new Email address once you have logged into your account. It is important to keep the system up to date on your current address in case software patches or updates are published, so that you will receive an automatic notification.

The Login Screen

You will be presented with this screen:

YES! I want to be notified of Product Updates.

YES! I want to receive special offers from trusted partners.

We will not use your name or email address for any purpose other than stated above.

Please note that we do not recommend the use of free Email services such as Yahoo, Hotmail, Gmail, etc. because they are notoriously unreliable, and also, tend to filter out mail that you really want to read. While the system will accept those addresses, we strongly recommend an establish POP3 Email account for important correspondence.

Changing Your Account Password

To change your account password simply press the Change Password button.

Simply enter the previous password, and then your new password in the required fields and press Submit.

All of the detail that you need to reactivate your license can be found here. Note the number of activations left. If this says 0 it does not mean that you will not be able to reinstall the product. If you are installing on the same computer you will most likely not have to reactivate the software. If you need to have additional activations just return to our Support page and select the link Request Additional License Activations. We will be glad to assist you.
